

Name _____ Date _____ Examiner _____

e o x i b qu ch
z v a u w d th

---

red bed much cannot

pot top with quacked

let men this pinching

my well chick catching

---

get back missed packed

got bath missing picked

---

do put was from

goes very were doing

... A Bit of Bad Luck ...

Tom and Beth were going for a run and then to have lunch. The kids packed buns with ham, bags of chips, and a jug with punch. They put the lunch bags in a backpack.

They ran on a path up a hill. Then they sat on a bench and had a chat as they had lunch.

Bugs were buzzing by Tom. Tom hits the bugs. “Quit it!” he said.

Beth tells him, “Do not hit the bugs. If you do, they will get very mad.”

Tom runs from the bugs, but they catch up to him. Zap! Tom yells, “A bug bit me! My neck is red and hot! Tom was very upset.

---

Comprehension questions:

What happened to Tom? Why?

What do you think might happen next?

Proficiency Test #3 (Spelling Dictation)

ĩ            x            ŭ            ch            b            qu ǎ            ě            th            z            ǒ            w hop                      wet                      pass                      then                      bench men                      much                      will                      gets                      fixing

He goes to bed by ten.

Were you doing your math?

Jeff was very hot from the sun.

Name _____ Date _____

Examiner _____ Grade _____

PROFICIENCY TEST #3 SUMMARY

Errors noted below become instructional goals.

READING

Phonograms

Phonetic Words

Red Words

Suffixes

Text Reading (fluency & comprehension)

---

SPELLING

Phonograms

Phonetic Words

Red Words

Handwriting

Punctuation and Capitalization

---

Comments